

Edd Student Fireside Chat: Supporting each other during uncertain times

With Lauren Moran, EdD &
Jill Perry, CPED Exec Director

Contents

1

About us

- Facilitators
- Participants

2

Words of Experience

- Lauren & her EdD Journey

3

Sharing & Supporting Each other

- Breakout Groups

Who's with us?

From the registration questionnaire

From the data...

- 86 Participants
- 35 Universities
- Varying stages of EdD Programs

Who's with us?

Anticipated Graduation Year

Who's with us?

Biggest Challenge

1. You are not alone!
2. Use your network
3. Create a dedicated workspace
4. Dedicate time
5. Know your resources
6. Leverage technology
7. Be honest with family and friends
8. Give yourself some credit
9. Pick one thing that makes you happy
10. You can't eat an elephant in one bite

From Lauren

Sharing & Supporting Break out Rooms

A) Introduce Yourself—name, institution, problem of practice

B) Discuss strategies for dealing with:

- Balancing responsibilities/Time Management
- Motivation
- Isolation/ Mental well-being

20 minutes

Bring back key ideas

Great Ideas from our peers

Ideas from Sharing & Supporting:

1. Results List vs. To Do List
2. Network—find others, Professional Learning Communities (Twitter)
3. See as opportunity vs. disruptive
4. Create connections—we are social beings
5. Sit in on dissertation defenses
6. Be adaptive

7. See notes section below

Q&A?

Staying Connected

Join the new CPED EdD student Facebook Group:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/EdDStudents/>

Or from CPED page,

Or search "EdD Graduate Students" in the Facebook search bar.

Thank you for joining us.
PPTs will be shared.
Please complete the survey.